LETTERS TO GENERAL GREENE AND OTHERS

Annotated by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL

Charlestown Jan<sup>y</sup> 21st 1781

Sir:

I have received your Letter of the 19th Inst: & am to thank you for the very proper measures you took to free the Country from the Enemy's Plundering Parties, & trust you will, in a great degree, hinder their again crossing to your Side of the River. To this End it will be necessary to keep a watchful Eye on the Passages between you & Nelson's Ferry, & be attentive to the communications with that Post, on which Subject I now write to the Com<sup>d</sup> Officer there.

I am, Sir

Your obedient humble Servant

W. Balfour.

Lieut: M<sup>c</sup>Pherson
(Turn over.)

<sup>1</sup> The gallant and able officer who was in command of Fort Motte when it was besieged and taken by Greene's troops in May 1781. The driving away of the families of Whigs from their plantations is consistent with Balfour's action in the execution of Col. Isaac Hayne.

P. S. I must request that you will be so good as to take particular care, that the family's of those who have joined the enemy are not suffered to remain on their plantations but sent off immediately—W. B.

Calling on the C. de la L<sup>3</sup>: a few days ago to congratulate him on the Arrival of the F: Fleet in the Bay of C:<sup>4</sup>, The Conversation after a time was turned to the Object agst: which it was hoped the armament was to be employed when the Reduction of C<sup>5</sup> should be accomplished; & I embraced the Opp'y of urging as far as I was able the necessity & practicability of recovering C. T. to the Union—The Minister appear'd (as he always has been) anxiously disposed to advance the Operation, & desired that I w<sup>d</sup> Submt to him in writing my Ideas of the practicability, promising to make up of his best Services wth: the C. de G: for a naval Cooperation—the Candor & Confidence with which he has treated me, the Influence which his Interest may possibly have on the Conduct of the Admiral, & the Import<sup>ce</sup> of the Object which was to be obtained would not suffer me to hesitate; & I complied with his Request the day before Yesterday by delivering to him such Sentiments as I could well throw together within the Compass of a Letter—urging in addition to the practicability of the Measures, such political Reasons as my Ideas suggested to me for a speedy attempt.

<sup>2</sup> This is a rough draft of a letter to Gen. Washington written before the surrender of Cornwallis. The original dated Philadelphia, Sept. 12, 1781, is still in existence as a part of the correspondence of Gen. Washington now in the Congressional Library. It shows the deep interest in his State felt by Edward Rutledge, who had just been released from captivity at St. Augustine, and shows the friendly terms upon which Rutledge, as was the case with most of the leaders of the Revolution in South Carolina, was with Gen. Washington.

I observed to him that, as the F. Fleet in A: was now not only vastly Superior to every th<sup>e</sup> the B: have, but to every thing which they can have, even when reinforced by Adm'r D: with 6 Sail of the Line, that it w<sup>d</sup> be impossible for the Eng. to venture an attack on them, or attempt the Relief of C. T. with a probability of Success: we had therefore reduced to a certainty, the Force, against which we w<sup>d</sup> have to contend.

The Season of the y<sup>r</sup> from the begining of Oct<sup>o</sup> to the End of the Winter, was on every Acc<sup>t</sup> the most eligible for operating—provisions of all Kinds being then in greater plenty, & of better Quality than at any other period—The weather usually remarkably fine—the Climate peculiarly Healthy, & the Strength of the United Army full half way from their late Station, to the Scene of Action.

That should C<sup>6</sup> be overcome (as Heaven's grant he may) the Acc<sup>t</sup> of it would arrive in England just ab<sup>t</sup> the Meeting of P——t—an important period in which the Ministry w<sup>d</sup> be enabled to Props with more Confidence one or oth<sup>r</sup> of the following plans—either to open a Negotiation for a peace, or to Seek out Some new Alliance; to obtain which they must & would make very great Sacrifices; or what was equally probable they w<sup>d</sup> annoy us with one, while they push'd the other—If the first plan alone Sh<sup>d</sup> be adopted to what Advantage Sh<sup>d</sup> we treat if in posso<sup>n</sup> of C: T.—if the latter sh<sup>d</sup> be successfully persued & we sh<sup>d</sup> not be in the possession of C. T. on the arrival of the reinforc<sup>ts</sup> to the Gen: in C. T. it was impossible to say when or where we ever shall obtain it by Arms—In the Summer we shall be obliged to abandon the lower, to seek Health in the upper p<sup>t</sup> of the C<sup>o</sup>; to leave the Wealth of the State in the power of our Enemies, & Such Families as could not be remov'd, at their Mercy. Or else we must at all Events keep our Army in the Vicinity of the Town, & suffer it to be consumed by sickness—In Short that there was every thing to be expected from an immediate Exertion, everything, to be dreaded from a delay—I farther observed to him that if we possessed our selves of it at an early period We should have the Benefit of the present Crop which will be soon harvested & be in time to prepare for the ensuing year; which, tho' not of very general nature, is deserving of Attentions, as will affect the Convenience of some Thousand Individuals, & those of the most helpless class—I then stated to him the Importance of the Southern States to France when considered in a commercial point of View—the great Advantages which She must derive from the Circumstances of those States being principally devoted to Agriculture, their being of course obliged to obtain from abroad almost all the Manufactures which they used & the probability there was of having a considerable part of their produce carried off in y<sup>e</sup> Vessels of France; concluding the whole with observing That when the B: C: took their final Leave of A: in 1778 they declared y<sup>t</sup> they w<sup>d</sup> desolate the Country and render as little useful to France as possible—that in their Declaration they appeared to have been sincere—That they had sent from the Southern States many thousands of Slaves by whom the Fields were cultivated, & probably in their last act of Rage and Malice they would reduce our Capital to Ashes—that the speedy Recovery of the State and a naval Force sufficient to prevent their Escape afther having perpetrated so savage an Act were the only Securities we could possibly have against Beings who have been so long destitute of Humanity, and who would make it their greatest Glory to wound in their vital parts a people united to his most Xtian Mag<sup>t</sup> as we were by every Sentiment which Affection & Gratitude c<sup>d</sup> inspire.

As I imagined it possible that what has passed on this Occasion might find its way to the Bay of C. I thought it nothing but a matter of Becoming Delicacy as well as a Point of Duty on my part to communicate it to y<sup>e</sup> as soon as possible confident as I am that your Friendship will excuse the trouble which the perusal will give you & persuaded that sh<sup>d</sup> it become a Subject of conversation & there sh<sup>d</sup> be a possibility of their being appeal<sup>ed</sup> they w<sup>d</sup> receive all poss Support from your better Reason.

Your most affect Friend

THOSE gallant SONS of BRITAIN,
IRELAND and AMERICA, whose Errors or Misfortunes have compelled them to enlist under the Banners of a Rebel Congress, paid by the King of France, and devoted to his Will—who in Return for their Services, for the Toils, Difficulties and Dangers they have undergone, have neither received the Pay nor Cloathing due to them; and who, in a Word, are now experiencing the Want of almost every Necessary, as well as Comfort of Life;—Let such Men shew the Spirit becoming Freemen; let them disengage themselves from so ignominious, disgraceful and unprofitable a Service.— Within the British Lines, they will be received with Kindness; and may sell their Arms, Accoutrements and Horses; there Tradesmen may follow their Occupations, and be paid in solid Coin for their Work— Such Natives of the Old Country as wish to return Home, will have abundant Opportunities; while those who are desirous of enriching themselves with the Spoils of our Enemies, or are anxious to acquire Military Glory, may enter into the Service of King GEORGE.

List of Persons ordered out of Charlestown April 28, 1782.

<sup>71</sup> The numbers of the Royal Gazette, then printed in Charleston, between March 23 and May 22, 1782, are missing from the volume owned by the Charleston Library Society, and it is impossible to say from this source whether this proclamation was issued in Charleston only, as it purports to be. The House of Commons had on February 27, 1782, adopted without division a resolution praying the King not to pursue further the object of reducing the Colonies to their allegiance. This news was probably not known in Charleston when this bitter proclamation was issued. On April 4th Gen. Leslie commanding the British forces in Charleston attempted to procure the suspension of the confiscation Acts passed by the Jacksonborough Assembly in January of that year, and the prevention of further devastation on either side, by suggesting the appointment of Commissioners with a view to coming to an agreement on the subject. Governor John Mathews, elected by that Assembly, refused this suggestion (Ramsay, Revolution In So. Ca., Vol. 11, 355). This proclamation and the expulsion from Charleston of prominent Whigs and their families may have resulted from that refusal. There was certainly a renewal of incursions from Charleston into other parts of the State.

<sup>7</sup> The absence of the files of the Royal Gazette mentioned above prevents the verification of this list. Most of the information as to the persons expelled is taken from the almanac of John Tobler, published in 1782 when the British were in possession of Charleston, and from the almanac for 1785 published after the end of the War. Both of these almanacs may be found in the Charleston Library.

<sup>8</sup> John and William Harvey were brothers and men of property and steady "patriots." William was one of the prisoners confined on the prison ship "Pack Horse." It was on behalf of these prisoners and those confined on the prison ship "Tarbay" that the famous letter was written by their ranking officers saying that if the threats of retaliation upon them, made by Balfour, were carried out for acts of retaliation by Gen. Greene for the execution of Col. Isaac Hayne, and it should fall to the lot of any of them to be "made victims," they had "only to regret that their blood could not be disposed of more to the advancement of the glorious cause to which they had adhered." (Ramsay's Revolution in So. Ca., Vol. 11, 535.)

<sup>10</sup> John Paul Grimkie was the father of Judge Grimke, then Maj. Grimke, whose order book we have been publishing.

<sup>11</sup> Saml. Prioleau, Jr. & Co. were doing business at Cor. Broad & East Bay in 1785.

<sup>15</sup> Mrs. Meyers. Philip Meyer was on the "Pack Horse." This lady may have been of his family.

<sup>16</sup> Charles Pinckney was the father of Governor Charles Pinckney whose draft of a Constitution of the United States was so largely used in drafting the present Constitution. The father had been a member of Rutledge's council and had afterwards taken protection.

<sup>26</sup> John McCall, an insurance broker at 77 Church Street in 1782. The family were well known Whigs.

Sir.

In Obedience to your Excellency's Request to proceed on Wednesday last to M<sup>rs</sup> Elliott's at Accabee to meet such Gentlemen as should be appointed by L<sup>t</sup> General Leslie & to receive & discuss such Propositions as they should think fit to make relative to the Redelivery of American Property within the British Lines—Between two & three o'Clock in the afternoon of that Day M<sup>r</sup> Alexander Wright & M<sup>r</sup> James Johnston answered on the part of General Leslie & open'd the Business by saying that they had been sent to by that Officer about nine o'Clock in the Morning but had not had access to him until twelve when he desired that they would meet your Excellency's Commissioners and make the following Proposition.

"That there s<sup>d</sup> be a Restoration of all American Property now within the British Lines, such only excepted as he should be obliged to remove, by which was to be understood such of our domestics

<sup>49</sup> Mrs. Warley. Felix Warley was Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in 1784. Felix, Paul, Joseph and George, all officers in the Continental Line, were probably her sons.

<sup>50</sup> On August 17th, 1782 Governor Mathews had written to Gen. Leslie threatening that if the property of the citizens of South Carolina was carried off by the British fleet, which was assembling for the evacuation of Charleston, he would seize the debts due to the British merchants then in Charleston. This had led to the appointment of Commissioners on either side who on October 10th, 1782 came to an agreement, seeking to prevent, among other things, the carrying off of negroes belonging to citizens of the State, upon the fleet. This letter is a draft of the first report made by Edward Rutledge and Benjamin Guerard, appointed by the Governor, with regard to their efforts to reach an agreement.

as had rendered themselves obnoxious to their Masters by being servicable to the British: that they would nevertheless be fairly valued and fully paid for. Upon Condition that y<sup>r</sup> Excellency & the Council would agree to a suspension of the Confiscation Act and pledge themselves to use their best Endeavours as well in their Judicial as official Capacities to obtain a total Repeal of that Act upon the next meeting of the Legislature" Your Xcy's Com'ers answered them by saying that the Act of which the Repeal was required had been passed in the full assembly, upon mature Deliberation & with the full concurrence of both Houses, that y<sup>r</sup> Xcy. would therefore in our opinion assume a great deal too much should y<sup>o</sup> attempt to suspend the Operation of that Act & that therefore any Interference with it on that Head y<sup>r</sup> Xcy's considered was utterly inadmissible. The British Commers replied that they were not at Liberty to make any further offers, General Leslie having declared his Resolution in Case his propositions should not be acceded to to carry off all the Property he could possess himself of, that Compensation might be made to the Friends of British Government for their Losses. But that as the Subject which we were discussing was of vast Importance, & as they were at Liberty to listen to any Proposition from us they were desirous of knowing what engagem<sup>ts</sup> we would enter into for the Property in Question—y<sup>r</sup> Excys Commers then answered that in passing the Act above mentioned the Legislature had exercised a great Degree of Humanity by exempting from Confiscation Debts due to British Merchants, to their own Citizens who were the Object of the Act, & Settlements fairly made for the Provision of Families—that such Lenity would appear the more conspicuous when our former Forbearance was recollected & compared with the conduct of British Generals [Lord Cornwallis's name written and erased] from the time that the American Government had been established on the Ruins of the Royal authority until the Reduction of Charles Town the Pt<sup>y</sup> of the Subjects of G: B: & of our own Inhabitants who had declared their Sentiments & with drawn from our Society had been secured & protected by Our Laws, And how had we been requited? We had been requited in the following Manner—the The Capitulation had been infringed as soon almost as it had been signed—the Property of nearly every Citizen who had adhered to his Alleg<sup>ce</sup>: had been sequestered & much of it squandered,—

Marriage Settlements had been broken in upon—the validity of Contracts for the Sale of estates since the Revolution had been questioned for the Purpose of grasping the Property of our fellow Citizens—& even Debts which were due to our unfortunate Countrymen were made Objects for Sequestration—that in Consequence; of such Conduct we had sustained hopes (independent of the ppty in Town) infinitely beyond what we had confiscated, from thence we should have been fully justified in going every length; & that if the British should carry off such of our Property as was now in their Possession, the people of this State would hold themselves at Liberty to proceed to the Extremity of Power: that having now given this previous and timely notice if they by their Conduct should compel us to go into measures painful to our feelings & injurious to their Interests the Misfortune & the Faults would be on their own Heads as we had in what was withheld from Confiscation ample Funds for Reperation? Yet as we wished to avoid any further Measures which could occasion them Distress we were ready & willing on our part to do every thing in our power to prevent: & then Your Eccy's Commers made the following Proposition &c &c.

The British Commers replied that the Proposals appeared deserving of serious Consideration & requested that they might have an opp'y of communicating them to Gen<sup>l</sup> L. to which we readily agreed & they accordingly returned to Town that Even'g & came up again about two oClock to day with the following Answer—&c.

It appearing that nothing more could be done in this Business an End was put to the Conference by mutually declaring that we did not consider the Propositions on either side as any longer binding & that each Party was as much at Liberty as before the Conference We have the Honor to be

THE EARLY GENERATIONS OF THE SEABROOK FAMILY

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

The arms given in the family papers, imperfectly blazoned are: "A red cross on silver shield, a black cross crosslet fitchée. Crest: hand erect holding a red cross".

Burke's Armorie (1851) gives for Seabrook, Arms: Argent, a lion pass, gules, in chief a cross crosslet fitchée sable.

Crest: a hand erect, holding a cross crosslet in pale gules.

In this attempt to give some account of the earlier generations of the Seabrooks, a prominent and influential family who settled in Colleton County sometime before 1680, only the public records have been used, for such family accounts as the Compiler had access to, were mainly traditional, and did not agree with data found in the public records. As the Colleton records before 1865 have been destroyed, and the Charleston records show many sad gaps and the Seabrooks, as a rule, seemed to have failed to leave wills, there are several problems which have been settled by negative, rather than positive evidence.

Much valuable assistance has been given by D.E. Huger Smith, Esq. and M. Alston Read, Esq. both in collecting the material and in solving the various interesting problems which presented themselves.

Captain Robert Seabrook (1652-1710), an English Merchant, was the ancestor of the South Carolina family; he came to the province before June, 1680, and, from the will of his son John, he appears to have come from Dunstable, in the County of Bedford. As Robert Seabrook, merchant, he gets a warrant in June, 1680, for 200 acres of land, and warrants, dated Feb. 17 and 18, 1680/1 for two town lots in Charles Town, and in August 1683 one for 80 acres for the importation of two servants.<sup>1</sup>

In January, 1692/3, he was granted lot no. 159 in Charles Town for a church yard<sup>2</sup> [sic]

In August 1692, he was accused of holding "unlawful Commerce wth pyratys selling unto them provisions arms & ammunition," and was fined.<sup>3</sup>

In April, 1697, he bought 2700 acres of land in Colleton County, and his son John bought 2080 acres.<sup>4</sup> He was a Commissioner under the Church Act of Nov. 4, 1704;<sup>5</sup> was a Member of Assembly and speaker of the House in 1705,<sup>6</sup> and commanded a company from the Islands during the French Invasion in 1706.<sup>7</sup>

Robert Seabrook died December 7, 1710, in his 59th year, and his wife Sarah died June 16, 1715, in her 47th year; they, with their son Benjamin, were buried at the old St. Pauls Church, Stono, near Church Flats, where their tombstones still remain.<sup>8</sup>

Robert Seabrook left a will, which is missing; from other wills, deeds, and inventories, he appears to have had children as given below, order of birth unknown. Sarah was probably a second wife, for according to her tombstone she was seventeen years younger than her husband, and the manhood dates of John Seabrook, son of Robert, make it seem unlikely that he could have been her son.

Robert Seabrook (1) had issue:

2. i. John Seabrook, of age by 1697, therefore born 1676 or earlier. Will made 1706; married Ann—
3. ii(?). Thomas Seabrook, of age by 1712, therefore born 1691 or earlier; latest date found concerning him is 1720; married Mary—?
4. iii. Ann Seabrook, married William Parrott, of James Island; she was born 1700 or earlier, and was still living in Dec. 1757, when her son Benjamin made his will.
5. iv. Martha Seabrook, married Capt. Arthur Hall. She was buried June 5, 1733 (St. Andrews Reg).<sup>9</sup>

- vi. Benjamin Seabrook, buried at St. Pauls' Stono, (Church Flats), died 7 Jan. 1717 in his 19th year.
7. vii. Joseph Seabrook, died intestate before 1743; married Elizabeth Whitmarsh.

John Seabrook (Robert, 1) of Colleton Co. Born before 1676; purchased 2080 acres of land May 15, 1697. Made his will April 15, 1706 (no date of proof); he died before Jan. 1712.

In his will<sup>10</sup> he describes himself as John Seabrook of Colleton County, and mentions the following:

Poor of the Parish of Dunstable, County of Bedford, England £100 Sterling. Eldest son of Joseph Peddiphett living in the Barbican near Aldersgate London, £50 Sterling.

Eldest son of Joseph Fossey of "Hochley in the Whole" Middlesex, £50 Sterling. Wife Ann Seabrook £200 currency of So. Ca. in lieu of her thirds. Father, Robert Seabrook £200 currency in trust for daughter Martha when sixteen or married. Son James Seabrook £500 currency when 20, clear of all charges for his education &c. To Brothers and Sisters [not named] £20 currency each. To father Robert Seabrook Esq. of Colleton Co., all lands, negro and Indian slaves, horses, cattle, hogs and stock whatsoever. Father Robert Seabrook sole executor, Dated 15 April, 1706 [date of proof not given, but the will just before this was proved in April 1712, and the one following proved in May, 1712.] Witnesses, Evan Mackpherson, Hugh Hext, Benjamin X Lamboll [mark] and Henry Wigington.

In January, 1712, an act was passed to enable Capt. Arthur Hall, Capt. John Whitmarsh, and Mr. Robert Seabrook, administrators of John Seabrook, late of the Province of Carolina, planter deceased, with will annexed, to sell the lands of said John Seabrook to pay his debts, legacies &c.

John Seabrook (2) had issue:

1. Martha, no further record.
2. James, no further record.
3. Child unborn in 1706 no further record.

3.

Thomas Seabrook (Robert, 1). The inference is strong that Thomas was a son of Capt. Robert, but no conclusive proof of the relationship has been found. On 26 Dec. 1712,<sup>11</sup> as Thomas Seabrook of Colleton Co., planter, he mortgages to Capt. Arthur Hall, John Whitmarsh and Robert Seabrook, administrators, with will annexed, of John Seabrook, two plantations in Colleton County 2080 acres on the west side of the Aslepoo River, and 380 acres adjoining, in all 2460 acres bounded east on the river; William Parrott, Edmund Cook and William Allen witnesses. The number of acres first mentioned, 2080, agrees with the number purchased by John Seabrook in 1697; probably Thomas Seabrook purchased John Seabrook's lands, giving a mortgage on same. On 23d. January, 1715/16, as Thomas Seabrook, of Colleton, planter, he gave a bond<sup>12</sup> to Capt. Anthony Mathewes of Charles Town for £997 current money, and mortgaged to Mathewes the following Slaves: Negroes, Jolly, Sampson, Daffiny Betty and Francisca; two Indian men, Peter and Anthony, and four Indian women, Catrena, Judy, Hager and Sarah.

The latest date yet found for Thomas Seabrook was 16 April 1720, when, with William Parrott and Lud. Grant he witnessed a deed<sup>13</sup> of release from Arthur Hall and Martha his wife to Robert Seabrook, of 372 acres, Wadmalaw Island, adjoining land formerly Richard Underwood's, then Samuel Underwoods, being part of 1800 acres surveyed and run out April 1699 for Capt. Robert Seabrook, and conveyed 21 Aug. 1710, by deed of gift to Arthur Hall from his father-in-law, Capt Robert Seabrook.

Thomas Seabrook appears to have married twice. There is a Seabrook group, which by careful examination and elimination, seem to be the children of Thomas by Mary—, who was probably a kinswoman of the Hexts', for Alexander Hext, in his will, made 16 July 1736<sup>14</sup> leaves most of his estate to John and Richard Seabrook, Sarah Green, Mary, Elizabeth and Susannah Seabrook, children of Mrs. Mary Seabrook, but does not mention a relationship. John Seabrook of the Hext will, had a brother Benjamin who is not mentioned in the said will; this possibly points to his having a different mother.

Thomas Seabrook (3) seems to have had issue by a first wife, name unknown:

- i. Benjamin Seabrook of St. Paul's parish, born 1716 or earlier. Married 7th April, 1737, Mary Bonneau.<sup>15</sup> On Dec. 13, 1745,<sup>16</sup> John Seabrook of John's Island, gentleman, gives to Thomas Farr of Charlestown gentleman as trustee, in consideration of love and affection which he (said John Seabrook) bears to his brother Benjamin Seabrook and Mary the wife of said Benjamin, and Elizabeth the daughter of Benjamin and Mary, five negro slaves (named), for the use of wife and daughter of said Benjamin Seabrook, without his interference, and any other child born to said Benjamin and Mary. On the death of Benjamin Seabrook, Thos. Farr to convey said five slaves to the said Elizabeth Seabrook, and any other child of Benjamin and Mary. If Benjamin die without issue, then one half of slaves to Mary, wife of said Benjamin Seabrook and the other half to return to John Seabrook or his estate.

On Feb. 3d, 1753<sup>17</sup> Benjamin Seabrook, as administrator, makes returns from the sale of the estate of Mrs. Mary Seabrook at Ashley Ferry; the purchasers at the sale were George Saxby and Wm. Harvey (sons-in-law of Mrs. Mary Seabrook), Benjamin Seabrook, and Mrs. Bosomworth (her daughter). It is not easy to distinguish between this Benjamin Seabrook, and Benjamin the son of Joseph (9), but that they are not one and the same is evident; the further history of this Benjamin has not been recovered.

Thomas Seabrook had issue by Mary—:

- ii. John Seabrook, of St. Bartholomew's Parish, born 1719 or earlier, died before June, 1750; married before March

Bull directed Robert Yonge, Henry Williamson and David Crawford to appraise the estate of Christopher Wilkinson, and to apportion to Mary, daughter of said Wilkinson, who had lately married John Seabrook of St. Bartholomew's parish, her share of the property.

John Seabrook made his will 21 Jan. 1743, proved 22 June 1750;<sup>19</sup> mentions his mother Mary Seabrook; his wife Mary Seabrook and any issue he may have by her; if no issue, then sisters Susanna Seabrook and Elizabeth Seabrook, neice Mary Green; lands on Stono and John's Island; Mr. James Mathewes of Charlestown, and George Saxby, Executors; Miles Brewton, Hen: Christie and James Drummond witnesses. His widow married 26 Feb. 1756, Thomas Legarè (St. Philips Register Mss.) John Seabrook seems to have left no issue.

- iii. Sarah Seabrook, born 1720 or earlier, married before 1736 Daniel Green Jr., by whom she had one daughter, Mary Green, born 27 March, 1737/8. She married second Joseph Jones of Johns Island, who, 15 April, 1741,<sup>20</sup> makes provision for Mary Green, infant daughter of his late wife Sarah Green; and if said Mary Green die, then to John Seabrook, Mary Harvey, Elizabeth Seabrook and Susannah Seabrook; Alexander Hext, trustee.
- iv. Mary Seabrook, born 1724 or earlier, married Augt. 23, 1739,<sup>21</sup> William Harvey Jr. (1717-1784). They had issue: (1) Joseph Harvey born and died, 1745, (2). Soc.) under date of Oct. 19, 1765 enters the item "M<sup>r</sup> Saxby hung in effigy." Mrs. Elizabeth Saxby died in England, late in the 18th, or early in the 19th Century.
- vi. Richard Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1735,<sup>27</sup> died young.
- vii. Susannah Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1736,<sup>27</sup> married first, 2d Nov., 1749, at Ashley Ferry, Abraham Bosomworth, Esq., agent for Indian Affairs; the newspaper account of her marriage states that she was "endowed with all agreeable accomplishments, and a fortune of £15000."<sup>28</sup> She married second, Hugh Penfield, and died in England.<sup>29</sup>

Ann Seabrook (Robert, 1.), married William Parrot, of James Island. William Parrot made his will Jan. 24, 1734/5, proved, Sept. 15, 1735, mentions wife Ann Parrot, daughter Ann Rivers, son Benjamin Parrot under 21. Mrs. Ann Parrot was living when her son Benjamin made his will in 1757. Said Robert Seabrook, by will 20 Sept., 1710, devised said lands by name Seabrook's Island . . . . to his son Robert Seabrook and his heirs, and for want of such heirs to Joseph and Benjamin Seabrook [then follows an obvious error as to Robert and Benjamin, for Robert is given as dying under age in the life time of his father &c.] . . . . land became vested in Joseph Seabrook, who 2 Nov., 1726, conveyed to Arthur Hall . . . . said Hall by will 27 June, 1732, devised to his bro. in law said Joseph Seabrook provided said Joseph paid &c. . . . said Arthur Hall died 20 Sept. 1732 . . . . said Joseph on 19 Feb. 1734 had not paid the said sum; property became absolute in the executors of Hall . . . . therefore said Joseph Seabrook quit claimed &c.

ber of Assembly in February 1721.<sup>46</sup> Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Seabrook of Colleton County, renounces dower 30th January 1726, to the 1354 acres sold to Col. Arthur Hall.<sup>46</sup> He died intestate before June 10th, 1743, for on that date the inventory of his estate was filed by Elizabeth Seabrook, widow, administratrix; Joseph Russell, William Edings and James Cuthbert appraisers. He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Whitmarsh Senr. of Colleton County. Joseph Seabrooks inventory lists fifty-one slaves; John Whitmarsh's will (made June 1st, 1718 proved 25 Jan. 1720) gives his daughter Elizabeth ten slaves, Indian Rose, Nancy, Andrew, Pompey, Tom, Tony, Ishmael, Phillico, Phebe and Pompey's Jenny; among Joseph Seabrooks slaves are listed; a wench Felico [sic], fellow Andrew, wench Jenny, wench Phebe, fellow Tom, fellow Tony, fellow Ismael and Old Pompey.

John Whitmarsh left his son John two tracts of land on Edisto Island, one of 500 acres and one of 100; also three tracts on creek out of Ashepoo River, and eight slaves; Daughter Edith [she married Joseph Elliott in 1724] two tracts of land on a branch of the Ashepoo River, 100 acres known as Turkey Hill, and 150 acres known as the Hills, eleven slaves, twenty cows from the cowpen on Ashepoo River; Daughter Martha [married William Fuller Jr. in 1727], 200 acres on Edisto, being the plantation on which Mr. Thomas Bower dwelt, and eleven slaves; Daughter Ann eight slaves; Daughter Elizabeth ten slaves; Son John cattell, hogs &c at cowpen on Ashepoo River; House hold goods to be divided between his children, also all personal estate "beyond the seas" on the snow call John Adventure; Crops, cattle, sheep, hogs, horses on Edisto Island to be sold; Rest of personal estate to friends Benjamin Cattell and Robert Seabrook, who are also the executors, June 1, 1718. Proved 25 Jan., 1719/20.<sup>47</sup>

The daughters are mentioned by their first names only, but the evidence is that they were all except Martha and Edith, married before the will was made; Mary to Robert Seabrook, Elizabeth to Joseph Seabrook, and Ann to Benjamin Cattell of St. Andrew's parish. dated 21 May 1733, of 420 acres on Edisto, recites the grant of same to her grandfather Thomas Bower, and his giving her same by will.<sup>48</sup> Her son Benjamin Cattell made his will 14 Nov. 1759,<sup>49</sup> and describes himself as Benjamin Cattell (son of the late Benjamin Cattell deceased) of St. Andrew's parish and mentions:

Vestry and church wardens of St. Andrew's parish, £500 for a free school; Whitmarsh Fuller, (son of William Fuller deceased) plantation of 441 acres on the North side of Ashley River, in St. Andrews parish [part of three different tracts]; Kinsman Robert Seabrook 319 acres at Horse shoe, St. Bartholomew's parish Benjamin Cattell, (infant son of William Cattell Jr. deceased) plantation "Where I now live" 730 acres in St. Andrews, also 160 acres pine land on South Side of the Ashley River; Rev. Charles Martyn, "my friends and relations;" appoints Wm. Fuller, Benjamin Fuller, Whitmarsh Fuller, Revd. Charles Martyn, Joseph Seabrook, Benjamin Seabrook, Robert Seabrook, and John Seabrook "my kinsmen" to be executors. Proved 23 Jan. 1761, All the executors qualified.

From the above evidence it appears that Joseph Seabrook married Elizabeth Whitmarsh, and had issue (order of birth unknown):

8. i. Joseph Seabrook (later known as Joseph Seabrook Senr.) died about 1790.
9. ii. Benjamin Seabrook, died about 1780.

Death.] Mrs. Mary Beale, Wife of John Beale, Esq; a Lady much and deservedly regretted by all who had the Happiness of her Acquaintance. (Monday, December 3, 1771.)

Death.] On Tuesday last, the 10th instant, died here, in the Seventy-Second Year of his Age, Dr. John Moultrie, an eminent Physician. He practised the Healing Art in this Place, for near fifty years, in its several branches of Physick and Surgery, with such success and to such an Extent as would have done Honour to any Character. By Nature endowed with Several rare qualities of Mind, which were carefully cultivated by a liberal Education, first in the Languages and Philosophy, and then in Physick and Surgery; and, while yet a young man, enjoying the singular advantage of a personal Acquaintance with the first Surgeons of the Age, we cannot wonder that by those Helps and by the Example and Precepts of those Men, he gained that Degree of Knowledge which shown out with such Lustre in every intricate case whereon he was consulted. As a physician, he was eminently distinguished by his great Sagacity the first and leading Quality of that character. He saw, almost intuitively, into the Nature of Cases, and consequently his Endeavour to relieve was as quick as the Relief was certain. His strong penetrating Genius should never be fettered by the Systematic Theories and Jargon of the Schools on the one Hand, nor could it, on the other, ever be subjected to or debased by a low irrational Empiricism. Vigorous and discerning, his unbiassed mind enabled him always to see clearly, and judge properly. In surgery he has ever most deservedly, since his first settlement in this Place, borne the first Character; and in some Branches of that Art, his Skill and Success would have intitled him to the first Rank in any City in Europe. To his Character as a Physician that of a Gentleman was ever inseparably united. As a Father, happy in seeing his sons follow those Precepts he had given, and make the proper use of that Education which he had himself planned and carefully seen carried into Execution. In private Life, easy, chearful, affable, facetious; fond of his friends, animating the social Hour in the rational Enjoyment whereof he knew much happiness was placed; firm and warm in his Friendship. His Conduct as a Citizen and Subject was steady, uniform and consistant, unawed and unbiassed, with a Heart overflowing with Benevolence towards his fellow Creatures, he embrassed all with the Spirit of Humanity and true Christian Charity, and viewed none as his Enemies but the Enemies of Society. Those who knew him not may, from what has been said, form some, though very imperfect Idea of this great and good Man; those who knew him need only consult their own Breasts for his character. Justly may we lament the unspeakable loss of a Stock of Knowledge gained by such extensive Practice, and so long Experience; a Loss which may to this Place, and alas! to the weaker and more delicate Parts of the Society, prove irreparable. (Monday, December 16, 1771.)

Deaths.] Mr. Charles-Stevens Stocker, Merchant.—Mrs. Maverick, Wife of Mr. Samuel Maverick. (Tuesday, December 24, 1771.)

Death.] Mrs. Susannah Bee, Wife of Thomas Bee, Esq; in the Bloom of Life, and after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Resignation and Firmness truly Christian. (Tuesday, December 31, 1771.)

ALL SAINTS, WACCAMAW; DESTROYED BY FIRE, DECEMBER 12th, 1915

HISTORICAL NOTES.

The parish Church of All Saints Waccamaw was, unfortunately, completely destroyed by fire on the night of Sunday, December 12th, 1915. Services were held in the building that morning and the church closed at one P. M. The fire was not discovered until 10 P. M., when some passing negroes found the building on fire and called Mr. J. H. Galbraith, the Rector, who lives near. The church was by then doomed, and there was only time to rescue the altar cross, and vases, the Bishop's Chair, an old Bible and Prayer-book and some altar hangings.

This was the third church on this site; having been erected in 1843, while Rev. Alexander Glennie D. D. was Rector. The church was quite a handsome one, substantially built of brick, and is thought to have cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars.

The Mural tablets, (now gone) and inscriptions from the tombs in the churchyard, were printed in this MAGAZINE Vol. XIII pp. 163-176. Some account of the Parish and its church has been given by Judge Henry A. M. Smith in his "Hobcaw Barony," this MAGAZINE, Vol. XIV, pp. 61-80; and the Rector, Rev. J. H. Galbraith, has given a full account of the destruction of the church, and also something of its history in The Diocese, for January, 1916.
